WEDNESDAY JULY 28.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the state of Wisconsin are requested to elect delegates to a state convention to be held in the capitol, at Madison,

WEDNESDAY SEPT. 8, 1886,

at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates of the republican party for the several state offices, to be voted for at the ensuing general election in November. Each county will be entitled to delegates as follows, the representation being based upon the number of votes cast for Mr. Blaine in 1884, one delegate to each 500 votes, or major fraction of 500—each county entitled to one delegate, without reference to number of votes cast:

A negro woman engaged to prepare a dinner for a colored picnic in Tatnall county, Georgia, murdered a young child which had been left in her charge, cooked half the remains, and served it to the people. The other half was found salted down in a barrel. The negroes became perfectly frenzied on making the discovery and seized the woman and burned her at the stake. The report appears to be authentic.

The exports for week ending July 27, 1886, exclusive of specie, amount to $7,208,209.

It is estimated that 1,500,000 bushels of wheat were ruined by the recent great hail and wind storms in Dakota.

A recent census of the state of Rhode Island shows a population of 304,283, a gain of 27,753 since 1880. The city of Providence has a population of 118,070.

Last week there was an increase in the visible supply of grain in the United States and Canada of 2,918,170 bushels of wheat, 132,455 bushels of corn and 59,074 bushels of rye, but a decrease of 196,433 bushels of oats and 6,261 bushels of barley. Chicago elevators contain 10,900,529 bushels of grain, against 10,626,461 bushels a week ago and 16,202,487 bushels at this period last year.

Major R. E. Fleming, one of the railroad commissioners of Dakota, interviewed in the Pioneer Press, takes a gloomy view of the crop situation in Dakota. He says the storms of Friday and Saturday night in north Dakota destroyed about 1,500,000 bushels of wheat. He places the total yield of the territory at not more than 12,000,000 bushels. Major Fleming says that thousands of cattle and sheep will be brought from Montana into Dakota this winter, as grass on the ranges has been entirely burned out. The agent of a reaper company at Bismarck told him he had sold over fifty machines, but would not deliver three, as the crops in that section were not worth cutting.

The annual report of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company, just published, shows the net earnings for the year 1885 to have been $10,420,373. The gross earnings were $24,279,509.74, against $23,502,055 56 last year. The number of miles operated during the whole year was 3,819½, divided as follows: Illinois, 587½; Wisconsin, 921; Michigan, 308½; Iowa, 1,112; Minnesota, 414½; Dakota, 665. The excess of net earnings for the year was $1,381,844.60 over last year. Compared with last year there was an increase in gross earnings of $85.83 per mile, a decrease in expenses and taxes of $50.11 per mile, and an increase in net earnings of $135.94 per mile. The total equipment consists of 699 locomotive engines and 21,544 cars. Aside from the work done west of the Missouri River by the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley Railroad Company and its extension, the amount of new railroad constructed during the year was comparatively small; but one short line of twenty-eight miles was built—the Yankton branch of the Dakota Central railway, extending from Centerville to Yankton. About three miles of terminal road were constructed and additional depot facilities obtained for the better accommodation of business at La Crosse, to which important point access has heretofore been had through trackage arrangements with the Green Bay, Winona & St. Paul company. The Northern Illinois railway (coal road) was completed and opened for traffic. The construction of several gaps in existing lines and some extensions of moderate cost have been begun. The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad completed an extension from Valentine west to Chadron, 136 miles, and from Chadron north towards the Black Hills to Buffalo Gap, 56 miles; total, 192 miles This company is now engaged in the further extension of the Black Hills branch, from Buffalo Gap north to Rapid City, an additional distance of 48 miles, which extension will be completed in a few days. The company is also constructing two branches in Eastern Nebraska, one from Fremont to Lincoln, about 52 miles, and one from Scribner to Shell Creek, 63 miles. An extension of the main line is in progress from Chadron to Douglas, near Fort Fetterman, in Wyoming territory, a distance of about 130 miles, and 80 miles of the track have been laid.

If any one thinks the course of democratic opinion is running smooth, let him read the New York Herald, the special organ of the administration. The Herald wants three democratic leaders defeated —Speaker Carlisle, Chairman Morrison and Mr. Randall. The indictments of these men is for deliberate conspiracy to cripple a democratic president in every good work, and, coming from the Herald with or without inspiration, it naturally inolndes as a most important point the failure of Mr. Morrison and the refusal of Mr. Randall to "reform the tariff." Carlisle and Morrison delayed action until any reform had become impossible, it is charged, and Mr. Randall then defeated the bill by collusion with them, in pursuance of their conspiracy to break down the president, for the same purpose, it is charged, the bill to relieve the pressure of the supreme court is denied a hearing, because it would give the president the appointment of several judges. For the same purpose, reform in land matters was so long delayed by the three leaders that "it is now sure to fail entirely." For the same reason, reform in Indian affairs was prevented, and reorganization of the navy. Finally, not contented with blocking the administration in forces openly in passing the Morrison surplus resolution, which virtually condemns the administration for its financial policy, and deprives it of the discretion intrusted to every other administration. As a last but effective count in the indictment, it is shown that the leaders refused to appropriate for sea coast defences the money needed, Mr. Randall distinctly declaring that "We," the democratic majority, "are not willing that" the small amount of money proposed for that purpose "shall be expended under the control of the department."

The cause of disagreement between the members of congress and the president is that the members can not trust the executive department. Mr. Cleveland has made some disgraceful appointments; but they were made at the request of the chiefs of the several departments and of congressmen, and now that they prove bad, the congressmen blame the president, and the president's friends throw the responsibility on the congressmen.

Then the democrats are at war over the tariff, and the congressional democratic majority is opposed to the president on the surplus resolution carried through the house by Morrison. It must be said, in justice to Mr. Cleveland, that he has tried, as far as the currency is concerned, to maintain the public faith, and this the democratic leaders like Morrison condemn. It will be seen from these points that the war in the party is going on in such a manner as to attract public attention.

Shopiere.

—D. VanValen has gone out on a business prospecting tour. Where he has taken his flight to no one knows but we suspect he has gone to Johnstown P. H.

—The esquire has been holding court with closed doors, thus making the eager public more anxious than ever to know about the case.

—It is always safe for a young man to keep his lady in the carriage when attending base ball games, especially if there are any "old lovers" in the crowd with a nice carriage and no girl.

—Miss Nettie Bell, of Beloit, is spending a week with her young friends, Miss Lulu Parker and Miss Nellie Holmes.

—Shopiere has fallen into line with other big cities and has two base ball clubs—the "Crescents" and the "Scrubs" are their titles. There have been two matched games on Saturday afternoons in which the Crescents won the first by a large tally, but in the game last Saturday the Scrubs took the shine out of their opponents and now they are looking for more game. It is not all in a name—we have seen a scrub turn out to be the finest kind of an animal.

—Mr. Tueson's little boy who was kicked by a colt is doing nicely and will probably recover.

—Frank Humphrey rolled his 250 pounds avordupois into our village last week. He has got so fat on Missouri corn bread that it is almost impossible to shake hands with him unless you have a very long arm. Frank has been engaged all summer putting up a large flouring mill in Clay county, Mo.

—Mrs. I. A. Farr, of Beloit, is visiting with her many friends in the village. She is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. D. Van Valen.

—The social at Mr. Humphrey Clark's was a success, and a large company enjoyed the hospitality of the family.

—Mr. Wilcox, of Ft. Atkinson, spent the Sabbath at the home of his father in-law, Rev. H. G. McArthur.

—Mrs. Alice Coe, who used to be known in this village as Miss Alice Pratt, is at the home of S. B. Smith.

—The steam threshers are preparing to pull out this week. We do not anticipate it will take long to thresh what grain is raised this year, although many find that they have better crops than they expected.

Kansas City Gets a Slice of Smiths' Fortune.

With the boom in the general prosperity of the city taken into consideration, our city got more than her share of the Louisiana State Lottery June Drawing yesterday. No. 18,145 drew the capital prize of $150,000. A lady in this city had a fifth ticket. Some one here was bound to get it for it has been demonstrated that money cannot get away from Kansas City. This $30,000 makes about $80,000 drawn by residents here since January 1. Mrs. Anna M. Cross is the lucky possessor of the slip of paper which by yesterday's turn of the wheel entitles her to $30,000. She is a widow aged about 35, and she has lived here about 3 years.—Kansas City Times, June 16.

CRIME MOST HORRIBLE.

SICKENING STORY OF HUMAN DEPRAVITY IN GEORGIA.

A Child Murdered, Part of Her Body Cooked and Served at a Picnic, and the Criminal Afterward Burned at the Stake—Terrible Tragedies at Louisville and New Albany—Minor Transgressions.

SAVANNAH, Ga. July 28.—In Tattnall county, last week, a negro named Samuel Frick left his daughter, aged 4 years, with a negress named Mary Hollenbeck to board during his absence at his employment at a turpentine still in a neighboring county. Monday Frick returned, and upon demanding his child was met with so many evasive and contradictory replies as to arouse a suspicion that something was wrong. A search of the premises resulted in the finding of half the child's body hidden in a barrel which had originally contained salt pork. The pickle had not sufficed to prevent decomposition, and the negro was attracted to the barrel by the unnatural stench arising from it. By this time other negroes in the neighborhood had joined in the search, and when the discovery was made there were fifteen or twenty blacks about the premises. The irate father was on the point of braining the woman with an ax, when she fell on her knees and said she would confess everything if he would spare her life. It was decided to hear her story, but, as the sequence proved, she would have fared better had she maintained her silence.

Two days after the child was placed in her care a negro picnic was given in the vicinity, and she was called on to prepare the dinner. Having no meat, and knowing that she would get no money unless she served some, she determined to kill the child and cook its flesh. Being somewhat under the influence of liquor, the fiendishness of the idea had no horrors for her, and she deliberately brained the child with an ax, dismembered it, and boiled the meat down into a stew with a heterogeneous collection of vegetables. When it was served the negroes remarked upon the peculiarity of its flavor, but nevertheless ate heartily. Several now allege that they were nauseated by the mess, but none of them were made seriously ill.

At the conclusion of the narrative the fury of the hearers was ungovernable, and it was quickly decided to burn her alive at the stake. She was taken into a field and chained to a post fixed in the ground, in the middle of a pile of inflammable pine, saturated with kerosene. When the match was applied the flames leaped high in the air, and the woman was seen ablaze. In fifteen minutes she fell among the blazing knots and was burned to a crisp, nothing remaining after the fire died out but a few charred bones and a ring which she had on one of her fingers. No attempt has been made to arrest any of those implicated in the affair, but an investigation by the coroner and sheriff of Tattnall county will be held.

THE DEADLY POCKET BATTERY.

Fatal Shootings at Louisville and New Albany.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 28.—Dr. C. L. Hoover, a prominent druggist of this city, was dangerously shot, and his son Charles Hoover almost instantly killed Tuesday by Professor I. G. Strunk, of the New Albany business college. Strunk accused Charles Hoover with being too intimate with his wife, and has made previous attempts upon young Hoover's life. As father and son were passing down Market street on their way to dinner about 1 o'clock, Strunk walked up behind them and fired two shots in rapid succession, the first shot striking Charles Hoover, who fell mortally wounded, and the other shot dangerously wounding Dr. Hoover. As young Hoover fell to the ground Strunk emptied his revolver into him and beat him over the head with the butt until he was dead.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 28.—At about 12 o'clock Tuesday John Carter, a notorious counterfeitor, was shot through the heart, and Peter Hough, a bricklayer, through the right eye, by John Koehler, a baker. Koehler was jealous of Hough's attention to his wife, and on returning to his house found his wife drinking beer in company with the two men. He drew a revolver and shot Hough, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Carter attempted to disarm Koehler, when he fired again, killing Carter instantly.

ANOTHER CHRISTIAN SCOUNDREL.

The Baptist Publication Society Robbed of $30,000—Partial Restitution.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—William I. Pierson, cashier and chief bookkeeper of the American Baptist Publication society, who was placed under arrest Tuesday on a charge of embezzling $29,000 of the society's funds, is 55 years old and has a wife and child. He has been connected with the society for twenty years and has held his present position five years. He lived comfortably but not extravagantly. It is supposed that he lost the money in speculations. The trustees state that Pierson has prepared to make partial restitution by selling his furniture and other effects and handing the proceeds over to them. It is thought that this will reduce the deficit to $20,000. Pierson had an excellent reputation for industry and integrity and was a leading member of the West Philadelphia Baptist church and an active worker in its Sunday school.

WILLIE SELLS CONVICTED.

The Kansas Boy-Murderer Found Guilty of Murder in the First Degree.

ERIE, Kan., July 28.—The arguments in the Sells case were concluded Tuesday. J. P. Woods, the boy's guardian, and J. W. Cosgrove spoke for the defense. The former, who has stood by the boy almost like a father through the trial, made an earnest plea for him. J. Q. Stratton summed up the case for the state in a five-hours' speech, after which the case was submitted to the jury. In one hour and two minutes the jury came in with a verdict of murder in the first degree as charged in the complaint. The prisoner accepted the verdict as a matter of course, and was returned to the jail to await the result of a motion for a new trial, which will be made immediately.

Downs Raising Cain Again.

BOSTON, Mass., July 28.—The expulsion by Parson Downs of sixty-five members of Bowdoin Square Baptist church has caused great irritation. Deacon Storey, one of the expelled, consulted eminent authority and, it is said, will at once sue the parson for criminal libel. Mr. Downs seems cheerful as ever. He is to be tried at the next term of the court on the charge of bastardy, preferred by Alice Watson.

Lake Shore Man Attacked.

CHICAGO, July 28.—At Warren's packing house in the Stock yards the men who were loading Lake Shore freight cars Tuesday were driven away, and one man seriously hurt. The Lake Shore road is really doing very little packing-house business now, the different packers not caring to force the fighting, and influencing customers to select some other route.

Didn't Steal Fifty Thousand.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Mr. Niles, of the firm of Niles & Bruce, says that the statement that Mr. Bruce, who is in Montreal, embezzled $50,000 held by the firm is greatly exaggerated. The funds taken were small collections made by Bruce and will not exceed $1,000.

A Big Audience at a Hanging.

DENVER, Colo., July 28.—Andrew Green, a negro, was hanged here Tuesday for the murder of J. C. Whitnah, a street car driver, last May. There were 15,000 people present. Green made a confession from the scaffold.

SALISBURY MAKES A SPEECH.

The Unionist Policy for Ireland To Be Adopted—Protection for Unionists.

LONDON, July 28.—Lord Salisbury was enthusiastically cheered by the crowds that had assembled in and around the Carlton club when his carriage drove up to the entrance, Tuesday, and the cheering was taken up and renewed upon his entrance into the club-rooms. When quiet was restored Lord Salisbury addressed the assembled members of the Conservative party at some length upon their duties. His speech occupied twenty minutes. He congratulated those present on the result of the elections and explained the necessity and wisdom of acquiescing in the Irish policy of the Unionists. He announced that he had offered Lord Hartington the premiership, the queen approving; but Hartington refused, notwithstanding the fact that the latter's colleagues had offered to extend to him their loyal support if he should conclude to accept. Parliament, he continued, would meet in continuous sitting in August until the estimates were passed. In conclusion Lord Salisbury admonished his hearers to preserve the utmost secrecy as to their intentions.

Mr. Arthur L. Tottenham, Conservative member of parliament for Winchester, subsequently asked Lord Salisbury what protection would be afforded the Loyalists of Ireland, where, he said, under the existing state of affairs, their lives were becoming a burden to themselves.

Lord Salisbury replied that the existing laws for the government of that country would be rigorously enforced. He would apply for additional powers if necessary, but he thought it unwise to discuss these matters before the estimates were finished.

CONSIDERING CUTTING'S CASE.

An Eminent Mexican Jurist Will Decide the Editor's Fate.

EL PASO, Tex., July 28.—It is stated by Consul Brigham, at Paso Del Norte, that there is no alteration in the status of the Cutting case. Cutting is still in prison, and Chief Justice Romos, of Chihuahua, still has the case under consideration. Senor Francisco Romos has a high reputation as a jurist and a broad-minded man. He is popular with the American residents of Chihuahua, who are in the habit of referring many intricate question to him for settlement. These facts lead to the hope that his decision in the Cutting matter will be such as to satisfy the sense of justice on all sides.

The governor of Sonor, Senora Torres, passed through here Tuesday. Speaking of the Cutting matter he said he thought there was less feeling in Mexico about it than has been represented to be. He attributed the frequent border misunderstandings partly to imperfect laws, and says that leading Mexicans are beginning to see the necessity for more modern legal methods.

LIVED TO A REMARKABLE AGE.

A Baltimore Colored Man Reputed to Have Been 153 Years Old.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 28.—The certificate of the death of William Scott, colored, was filed at the office of the health department Tuesday evening. The certificate gave the age of the deceased as being 153 years, and was signed by a reputable practicing physician. A visit to the late residence of the deceased was made by a reporter of the United Press. A knock upon the door was responded to by a very aged-looking and decrepit negress, who hobbled along with the aid of a cane. The woman proved to be the daughter of the deceased. She is 74 years of age, and is the youngest of six children by the first wife. The face of the dead man was greatly emaciated; the cheeks and eyes were sunken, and the skin was shriveled. The man's relatives claim that he remembered all about the revolutionary war, the signing of the treaty of peace between the United States and Great Britain, and the death of Gen. Washington. He may not have attained the great age of 153, but he, doubtless, lived more than a century by several years.

Gorgeous Ecclesiastical Ceremony.

MONTREAL, July 28.—The reception given to Cardinal Taschereau Tuesday on the occasion of his conferring the pallium on Archbishop Fabre was one of the most imposing events ever witnessed in this city. There were about twenty bishops and archbishops from all parts of Canada and the United States present at the ceremony, besides a large number of clergymen. A holiday had been proclaimed, and the streets were thronged with people. The cardinal was escorted to the church by a brilliant procession of Roman Catholic societies, after being presented with an address by the mayor. The cardinal sat on a silver throne surmounted with a canopy of crimson and gold, and the ceremonies were very elaborate. Afterward a banquet was given the prelates, followed by a reception. In the evening there was an illumination of the city and grand display of fireworks.

Squire's Iron-Clad Agreement.

EAST CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 28.—Everything was quiet Tuesday around Squire's pork packing establishment. The lock-out is complete. About sixty men, chiefly foremen and old employes who would not join the labor movement, are working in the factory, clearing up odd jobs, etc., but the business of the concern is practically suspended. Mr. Squires has drawn up the agreement he proposes to make the men sign before they are taken back. It is as follows: "We, the undersigned, do hereby promise and agree that in consideration of being re-instated in our former positions, we will join in no strike while in the employ of John P. Squire & Co., and when we desire to leave we will give proper notice."

Lock-Out of Brickmakers.

NEW YORK, July 28.—All but two of the brickmaking firms at Verplanck, on the Hudson, have locked out their employes, numbering altogether 925 men. They claim that they could do no business because the large contractors of New York and Brooklyn, who have heretofore taken all their brick, recently notified them that unless they kept the agreement made with their workmen last April the contractors would buy no more brick from them. This agreement placed the firms too much at the mercy of the Knights of Labor to be agreeable, and they gave notice last week that they withdrew from it and would hereafter deal directly with their employes. This led to the contractors withdrawing custom.

Fulton.

—J. W. Nash, of Janesville, spent the Sabbath with his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Lee.

—T. E. Sayre and wife, of Janesville, Miss Jennette Ely, of New York City, and F. H. Pease and wife, of this place, start today on a pleasure trip around the lakes. They take a boat at Milwaukee and go to Duluth, Minn., and cars to St. Paul and come down the Mississippi river home. They expect to be gone two or three weeks.

—Horse racing, foot racing and base ball are occupying the attention of our sports just now.

—This vicinity was visited by a fine shower Monday morning, and everything is greatly refreshed thereby.

—John Anderson and his lady were seen on the streets last evening.

—Another trotter added to the long list, and this time it is J. C. Hill's horse.

—Harvesting is progressing finely in this locality and some have threshed their barley. We hear that Wm. Douglass threshed seventy bushels of barley from two acres. Pretty good for an off year.

Anything in smokers' goods at Chases.

Afton Correspondence.

—In our last week's correspondence the weather and the crops had the place of honor at the head of the column; and perhaps it would not be out of order to note just here that the said weather and crops have not materially changed at this writing, excepting that some fields of grain are being harvested, and that we were blessed with a shower of rain Sunday night, which was copious while it lasted. That the drouth covers a great expanse of country is verified by reports we have heard during the past week from Minnesota and the western portion of our own commonwealth, which is in substance that dry weather and poor crops are the prevailing state of affairs.

—Six letters, three postals and a circular were received at the Afton postoffice last week, and bore marks showing that they formed a portion of the mail matter contained in the stolen and rifled pouch, the particulars of which were given in last week's budget. No clew as to who the perpetrators of the deed were is to be had as yet, and it is doubtful if they are ever detected.

—It becomes our painful duty to announce the death of Mrs. Charles J. Kilmer, which occurred at her home in the town of Beloit, Tuesday morning at four o'clock, the cause of her death being that slow but sure disease, consumption. She was highly esteemed by those who knew her, and the young husband to whom she was united in marriage only last Christmas, has the sympathy of all in his bereavement.

—Perhaps it will please our Bower City friends who favor the building of the Evansville cut off to know that if the road is to be built right off they will not have to wait for the rails to be rolled out at the North Chicago rolling mills, but that there is a large pile of rails laid up here in the Afton yards, and which were formerly stretched along over what is known as the Madison division of the Northwestern road, but which having been replaced by new steel rails, are piled up here and perhaps might be used in building the contemplated "cut off." Judging from a human standpoint one would be led to suppose that if the heavy traffic in freight and the long passenger trains were going to make glad the eyes of Janesville people, and give such an impetus to the growth of the city, the new steel would have been laid between the two "ellies" for surely the old rails would answer to run the "bob-tail" freight, passenger and mail trains which the company would probably send over the road between Harvard and Evansville to accommodate the intervening station. But it is very evident that the C. and N. W. Co. do not intend to let the Madison division of their system get out of repair or cease the running of trains over it, as improvements still continue. Last week the south side track in this place was raised 27 inches and given a new bed of gravel to lie on as will be the case with the other siding and main track are long. With an improved and newly graveled road bed, new steel rails, etc., it looks as though there would be no very remarkable decrease either in the traffic or the number of trains run over this division. We will now note a few personal movements in and around Afton before we close. Mrs. Lillian P. Eddy is in Afton visiting relatives and friends having returned Thursday evening from Lanesboro, Minnesota, Thursday, where her husband has been engaged in business and where they have resided since early spring. She reports dry weather in that part of the country.—Mr. Richard Waggoner, of Beloit, was in town Thursday and Friday of last week, having just returned from a business trip through the southern part of the state. He reports dry weather and poor crops all along; the only crops of importance being rye and winter wheat.—Miss Grace Flynn, formerly a resident of this place but now of Neillsville, Wis., is now in Afton and vicinity visiting.—Mr. E. W. Spotten, who has been here for several weeks past left for his home in New Auburn, Minn. last Sunday evening, going via the short line limited.

Footville.

—Footville is on earth again with pen in hand and says that the dance Saturday night was a very loud affair, but all report a good time if it were not for that "something" that was not found in the peppermint drops that were so eagerly sought.

—S. J. Strang made Chicago a business trip last week.

—The New England supper given by the ladies of the Disciple church in G. D. Silverthorn's new store was in every way a success. Footeville Cornet band discoursed some very fine selections which added greatly to the pleasure of those present.

—The following is a short extract from a letter received by A. W. Hastings from Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, South America, under date of June 4, 1886: "This is a very fine country, principally an agricultural and stock raising country. Land can be rented of the government for $600, United States gold, per league of 6,400 acres. This lies near the mountains and yields per annum from three to five cuttings of alfalfa grass. Stock could never be bought so cheap here as now. The Italian element prevails, then French, then English. A knowledge of Spanish is absolutely necessary to do well in the Argentine. Catholic is the prevailing religion. We have first class schools. A man with a little capital might do well to come here, but weigh it carefully before resigning a good living at home for a doubtful one here.

B. W. HANNA.

Harmony.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Carr, of Edgerton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd on Saturday.

—Lewis Martin has a new road cart.

—Mr. Wm. Butts has gone to Blue Hill, Neb., to look after business interests.

—The Harmony town hall choir met at the residence of Mr. Boyd on Saturday eve.

—Refreshing showers of rain fell Sunday and Monday, alike on the just and the unjust. They were welcome.

—On Sunday week as Henry Safford was driving on the middle road his horse became frightened at a scraper which lay beside the road and ran away, upsetting the carriage, and badly demoralizing the top.

—Mr. J. A. Sutherland, of Janesville, has commenced a series of lectures at the town hall on the rum traffic, the first of which was delivered last Sunday p. m, and the others will be given the coming Sundays at the same time and place. Mr Sutherland is giving much valuable time and talent for man's redemption from the wine cup, and that many may be profited thereby is the wish of all temperance people.

AGREEING ON NOTHING.

NON-CONCURRENCE SEEMS THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

The House Cuts the Canals Out of the River and Harbor Bill and Hennepin's Friends Say It Must Go In or the Bill Will Fail—Interesting Budget of Capital News.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28. — Three private pension bills vetoed by the president were reported back to the senate Tuesday with recommendation that they pass, the veto notwithstanding. The surplus resolution was also reported with amendments providing that the surplus shall not be permitted to go below $100,000,000, and empowering the secretary of the treasury to keep in addition a working balance of $20,000,000 on hand and to suspend bond redemptions whenever he considers public interest requires it, regardless of the amount in the treasury. Resolutions of Fairbank Post G. A. R., of Michigan, in favor of the passage of the vetoed pension bill of Cornelia B. Schenck were presented. The senate then went into executive session, remaining so until 5:35 p. m., when the doors were opened and the senate adjourned.

The sundry civil bill was reported to the house, the report non-concurring in nearly all the important senate amendments. Continued disagreement was also reported on the river and harbor bill, the objectionable clauses being those providing for the Portage Lake & Lake Superior, Sturgeon Bay & Lake Michigan, and Hennepin canals. In each case resolutions were passed insisting that those measures shall go out of the bill. It was also resolved to insist on striking out of the bill the senate amendment providing for improvement of the Mississippi from the Ohio to the head of the passes and re-establishing the Mississippi river commission. Consideration was then resumed of the Northern Pacific land forfeiture bill, and the senate bill was amended by the substitution of the house bill by a vote of 174 to 65. The bill was then passed—185 to 48—and a conference requested. The inter-state commerce bill then came up on the motion to substitute the house bill (Reagan's) for the senate bill (Cullom's.) A motion to agree to the senate bill with a proviso that it shall go into effect Jan. 1, 1887, was defeated, and the house adjourned.

HANLON AND ROSETTE REJECTED.

A Tie Vote Cooks the Former's Goose—Rosetta's Fatal Editorial.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—The senate went into secret session at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday forenoon and did not adjourn until 6 o'clock in the evening. Two hours were spent discussing the nomination of Thomas Hanlon to be collector of internal revenue for the Seventh Indian district, and it was finally rejected by a tie vote—28 to 28.

Quite a large number of postmasters were confirmed and one rejected, the latter being Rosette, postmaster at DeKalb, Ills. Rosette is an editor and wrote a scurrilous article about the time of the death of Gen. Grant, comparing the deceased to Julius Cæsar. The docket was cleared of unobjected nominations, but there is a lot of work yet before the senate in the consideration of contested nominations.

Confirmed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—The senate in executive session Monday confirmed the following nominations of postmasters: Illinois—E. McClung, Fairfield; C. W. Andrews, Murphysboro; A. Snyder, Arcola. Minnesota—D. G. Clary, Sleepy Eye. Indiana—W. S. Armstrong, Kokomo; J. E. McDonald, Ligonier; J. B. Ruger, Lafayette; W. Huber, Lawrenceburg. Michigan—F. Chapman, Fenton. Wisconsin—D. L. Harkness, Berlin. Iowa—J. H. Wallbank, Mt. Pleasant; T. Bowman, Council Bluffs; D. W. Flowers, Newton; D. S. Beardsley, Grinnell; J. Finj, Decorah.

Receivers of public moneys—J. J. Hoge, Boonoville, Mo.; D. W. Hutchinson, Bismark, D. T.; C. F. MacDonald, St. Cloud, Minn.; D. F. McDermott, Benson, Minn.; S. S. Smith, Devils Lake, D. T. Collector of internal revenue—G. M. Davis, Fourth district of Michigan.

A Commissioner to Confer with the Chippewas.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—The secretary of the interior has appointed J. B. White, of Tennessee; Charles F. Larrabee, of the Indian office, and Bishop H. P. Whipple, of Minnesota, a commission, as authorized by the present congress, for the purpose of negotiating with the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota for such modification of existing treaties and such change in their reservation as may be deemed desirable, and also to consider all claims which these Indians may have on the government. They are also to negotiate with a number of Indian tribes in Montana, Dakota and Idaho for a reduction in area of their reservations or removal to other and smaller reservations. The work of the commission must be ratified by congress.

The President Going to the Woods.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—The Star says: It is stated at the White House that Col. Lamont has gone to his home in Courtland county, New York, for a few days, but it is believed that during his absence he will make all the arrangements for the summer vacation of the President and Mrs. Cleveland. It is understood that the president and Mrs. Cleveland will reach Albany about the middle of August and will be accompanied on their trip by Mrs. Folsom and several intimate friends. It is said that they will go to the woods from Plattsburg, and that the trip will cover from four to six weeks.

Hennepin Canal or Nothing.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—Friends of the Hennepin canal project are considerably incensed over the vote in the house Tuesday to throw out the appropriation from the river and harbor bill, and say that without this item the bill will never pass. They go so far as to say there are at least forty congressmen who will vote against the bill now, who would have voted for it had the Hennepin item been retained in the bill. Murphy of Iowa thinks the Hennepin canal scheme would have strengthened the bill with the president, who he says once signed a petition urging the construction of the canal.

The Senate's View of It.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—The senate has removed the injunction of secrecy from the report of the senate committee on postoffices and post roads upon the nominations of a number of Indiana postmasters appointed to fill positions made vacant by suspension. These include the postoffices at North Manchester, New Albany, Tipton, Mt. Vernon, Sullivan, Princeton, Shelbyville, Cambridge City, Michigan City, and Peru. The removals, the reports say, were made in every case wholly for political reasons—to put Republicans out and Democrats in.

A New Postal Card Design.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—Postmaster General Vilas has approved a new design for postal cards. They are to be printed in black on white paper, with a head of Jefferson on the upper corner. The new design was prepared at the bureau of engraving and printing, and is generally considered an improvement on the cards now in use.

Postmasters Appointed.

Nankl-Poo at the Capital.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—Sardanaru Fushimi, one of the hereditary princes of Japan, who is traveling in this country on his way home, arrived here Tuesday night accompanied by his suite. He will remain here several days, guests of the Japanese legation.

Bills Approved by the President.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 28.—The president has approved the naval appropriation bill, the bill providing for the construction of a public building at Greensborough, N. C., and thirteen private pension bills.

THEY RAW-HIDED RATTIGAN

Foreshadowing the Fate of Press License When the Women Rule.

BUTLER, Pa., July 28.—Peter Rattigan, editor of The Millerstown Herald, was publicly horse-whipped Monday night by ten or twelve of the leading women of the Royal Templars of Temperance. Last Tuesday the Millerstown branch of the templars picnicked at Slippery Rock, and in the next issue of Rattigan's paper a description of the society's members and their talk was given. The good women of Millerstown were spoken of as "cowsey-headed, red-nosed female men," and as holding the men of the party under strict slavery, and when the women were also spoken of as "ugly gazzlers," they immediately made arrangements to "go for" Rattigan.

On Saturday last, Rattigan, who is also postmaster, was absent from town and did not return until Monday evening. At an appointed time Monday night, Miss Murphy, Miss Bell, and about a dozen of the other outraged templars appeared at the postoffice, armed with heavy cowhide whips, and when Rattigan appeared they "went for" him and whipped him until he was black and blue from head to foot. Tuesday morning he was also hung in effigy by the women. The action of the women met with general approval, both here and at Millerstown, and the templars congratulate themselves that they have dealt the liquor faction a deadly blow. Rattigan was seriously injured by the whipping.

AN ILLINOIS TOWN ON FIRE.

CHENOA, Ills., July 28.—A fire broke out about 11:30, Tuesday night, in Snyder's block, in the roof of P. B. Groesbeck's clothing and boot and shoe store. The stores of William Gayman, groceries and dry goods, and John E. Wightman, hardware, crockery, and glassware, were consumed, with contents; also the building occupied by Bramm & Ballenger, agricultural implements. Snyder's brick block was also burned. It was occupied by J. S. Kelly & Co., the Farmer's bank, the Masonic hall, and J. E. Cobb's drug store. The Masons lose their regalia and everything, valued at about $1,500, insured for about $800. Very little of the contents of the buildings was saved. Sparks set fire to Balbach's store, the Exchange hotel, and the freight depot, but they were extinguished. The heat was intense. The total loss is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000.

CARSON CITY, Mich., July 28.—It is reported here that Samuel Fulham's saw and shingle mill at Gowen, together with 40,000,000 feet of lumber and 10,000,000 shingles, burned Monday. Loss, $300,000; insurance, $150,000. The fire is supposed to have started from a spark from the mill. It is reported that Mr. Fulham will rebuild at once.

DON'T CALL HER "FRANKIE."

Mrs. Cleveland's Request to the Mother of a Namesake.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 28.—Herbert Winter, of Newport, Ky., has named his new daughter Frankie Cleveland Winter. An account of the occurrence reached the president's wife, who thereupon wrote the following letter:

"MY DEAR MRS. WINTER:—Many thanks for the kind way in which you remembered me in your little girl's name. May she be blessed through life as I have been. But will you do me the favor not to call her 'Frankie,' but Frances, or Frank. I am never called Frankie, and I dislike the name very much.

"With my congratulations and best wishes, I am sincerely yours,

"FRANCES CLEVELAND."

A Big Thing for the Mackay Cable Co.

NEW YORK, July 28.—It is announced that the Commercial ("Mackay-Bennett") Cable company has formed a land connection with the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway Telegraph company to the Pacific coast, including a branch line to San Francisco. The connection is made by a cable across the St. Lawrence, between Norriston, N. Y., and Brockton, Ont. The arrangement is effected as part of a new twenty-five years contract between the Canadian Pacific company and the Postal Telegraph and Cable company, the latter being the cable company's land connection. By the contract the postal obtains the right to operate the entire 4,000 miles of wire of the Canadian Pacific system, extending from Montreal to the Pacific.

Base Ball Players as Sluggers.

BALTIMORE, July 28.—Two of the St. Louis base ball players got into a difficulty Tuesday evening immediately after the game. Latham wished to place a little mascot darkey in the carriage with Capt. Commiskey and Second Baseman Robinson. Robinson objected, and Latham, who was seated with the driver, struck Robinson a terrible blow in the neck. Robinson dragged Latham back from the driver's seat, held him over the side of the carriage, and pummeled him with a vengeance. Upon their arrival at the hotel Robinson was fined $50 and Latham got off with a reprimand.

Set It Down as a Joke.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The officials of the Sea Beach Railroad company, on whose steamer a dynamite bomb was found Monday night, state that they regard both the threatening letter which they received and the bomb as a huge joke. They believe that if any dynamiter had had any designs on the young Brazilian prince's life, he would have endeavored to wreck the train instead of trying to blow up the steamer.

Crops All Right in Colorado.

DENVER, Colo., July 28.—There have been frequent rains of late in Colorado, and no serious damage to crops has resulted from the recent drought. The damage has been overestimated from the first. The plains of New Mexico are dry and the cattle are suffering, but not perishing.

Nemesis Overtakes a "Magnetic Healer."

A doctor at Portland, Ore., took too much electricity while practicing what he called magnetic healing, and now he is suffering from paralysis of the lower extremities. He used to wear shoes with plates in the soles of them and stand on metallic plates, which there was an electric battery, and as the current passed through him he transmitted it to his patients by the laying on of hands, claiming, of course, the power was within himself and not from a battery.—Chicago Times.

The Japanese as Railroad Engineers.

The Japanese have not only had nearly 300 miles of railroad in operation, but they make their own cars, and the building of the line from Tsuruga to Ogaki was conducted by young Japanese engineers, whose task included two large bridges and a tunnel a mile long.—Chicago Herald.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; every body said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of pills and two bottles of the discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—The United States district attorney has brought suit against William Braun, manager of Ridgeway park, to recover $1,000 for violating the statute against importing foreign laborers (in this case musicians) from abroad under contract. Surest Tranquilizer of the Nerves.

The surest tranquilizer of the nerves is a medicine which remedies their supersensitiveness by invigorating them. Over tension of the nerves always weakens them. What they need then, is a tonic, not a sedative. The latter is only useful when there is intense mental excitement and an immediate necessity exists for producing quietude of the brain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters restores tranquility of the nerves by endowing them with the vigor requisite to bear, without being jarred or disturbed unhealthfully, the ordinary impressions produced through the media of sight, hearing and reflection. Nay, it does more than this—it enables them to sustain a degree of tension from mental application which they would be totally unable to endure without its assistance. Such at least, is the irresistible conclusion to be drawn from the testimony of business and professional men, litterateurs, clergymen and others who have tested the fortifying and reparative influence of this celebrated tonic and nervine

CLOSING IN ON SPIES.

TESTIMONY CONNECTING HIM WITH THE FATAL BOMB.

A Witness Swears He Saw the Bomb-Thrower in Close Confab with Spies and Schwab on the Night of the Chicago Haymarket Tragedy—Schnaubelt's Picture Identified.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Most of the testimony in the Anarchist trial Tuesday morning related to the conduct of the crowd at the speaking on the night of May 4 at the Haymarket. It was testified that the listeners were turbulent and much more violent in their expressions than the speakers. Henry E. Heinemann, formerly a reporter on The Arbeiter Zeitung, said he had been connected with the Anarchist organization until Herr Most came here and made a few speeches, on account of which he severed his connection with the internationals. He also said that Rudolph Schnaubolt, the man who is believed to have thrown the death-dealing bomb, and who was arrested afterward, forfeited his bail and disappeared, was on the wagon with the speakers on the fatal night.

Perhaps the most sensational testimony produced by the state during the trial was given in the afternoon by M. M. Thompson, a dry goods clerk for Marshall Field & Co. He was at the Haymarket meeting. Some one handed him the "Revenge" circular. "Just before Spies began speaking," said the witness, "Spies and Schwab walked into the alley east on Desplaines street. There was a third man present whom I did not know. I heard the word 'police' and then 'pistols.' Schwab said, 'Now when they come let them have it.' Something passed between Spies and this third man. Spies asked: 'Will one be enough?'"

"What was it?"

"I could not tell."

"Who was the third man?"

"I do not know."

"Look at this picture," said Mr. Grinnell, handing the witness a portrait of Schnaubelt. "Is that the third man you saw?"

The witness examined the picture carefully and said slowly: "Yes, that is the man I saw. I am sure of it."

"Where did Spies and Schwab go then?"

"Toward the wagon. Spies got up on the wagon."

"Did you see the third man?"

"Yes, on the wagon."

"What did the third man do when Spies gave him what he did?"

"Whatever it was he gave the third man he put it in his right hand pocket on the side. I saw him at the meeting about an hour."

The witness was put through a vigorous cross-examination by Mr. Foster, who grew somewhat angry, eliciting the remark from Mr. Grinnell: "You had better change places with the witness and cool off." Mr. Foster took no notice of this, but continued to ply the witness with questions without, however, weakening his evidence.

Race Course Records.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The races at Monmouth park, Tuesday, were won as follows: Tolu 1⅛ miles, Nat Goodwin ¾ mile, Ferona 1⅛ miles, The Bard 1¼ miles, Witch ⅞ mile, Referee hurdle race.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 28.—Tuesday the midsummer meeting opened at the Driving park. Judge Lynch won the pacing race, Charles Foster second; best time 2:25. The 2:35 class trot was taken by Lucy Fry, Lady Haven second; best time, 2:20¾. Bonnie McGregor captured the stake in the 2:21 trot, Belle F. second; best time, 2:17¾. Madame Marantelle drove a running team a mile in 1:47¾, beating the record two seconds.

Only Knights May Earn a Living.

NEW YORK, July 28.—There will be a general lock-out of all Progressive cigarmakers in this city refusing to obey the command of district assembly 49 to leave their open union. Tuesday a committee from the knights, acting with the consent of the firm, announced to the employes of Leroy Bros. that all persons working for that firm not intending to remain members of the K. of L. must seek employment elsewhere. There are ten other shops in New York, employing about 3,000 hands, which will in all probability follow the example of Lero Bros.

CARDS AND LIQUOR.

TWO VICES THAT HAVE RUINED MANY A BRIGHT MAN.

Case of One Who "Might Have Been." Infatuated with the Ignis Fatuus of "Good Luck"—A Picture of Distress. Drunk Again.

Not long ago we went into Kosmak's to get a German dinner. While eating noodle soup and leberwurst we saw at a side table a man with a massive face, penetrating eyes, and a broad forehead. In the reign of James Buchanan he was a very prominent politician. As a stump speaker he had few equals. He has written leading articles for many daily newspapers, and he is a thorough political economist. Time had evidently treated him harshly. He looked like an old burdock burr gone to seed. His shabby coat was buttoned tight to his throat, but not tight enough to hide the dirty flannel undershirt beneath it, for he wore neither collar nor muslin garment. His shoes were cracked, and his soft felt hat was much the worse for wear. There was not the slightest trace of dissipation about him. He seemed downcast and lost in thought.

At a loss to account for the change in his appearance, we invited him to dine. He took a potato salad and some beer, but was moody and reserved. He would not talk about himself, and he cared not to talk about anybody else. It was evident that he was very needy. When a $5 note was pressed into his hand his eyes filled with tears.

"I did not ask you for this," he said, in a voice broken with emotion.

"No, indeed, you did not," we agreed. "But we know you need it. Take it, and get clean underclothes and a shirt. We know that you have no appetite for liquor, or we would not offer it to you. If you are ever again in good circumstances you can repay it."

He rose and grasped us convulsively by the hand. "I'll never forget this as long as I live," he said impressively, and walked hurriedly from the restaurant.

THE EX-CONGRESSMAN'S FATAL SECRET.

Capt. W., a well-known gambler, sat twenty feet away. The old man had hardly reached the sidewalk before the captain was at our side. "I saw you talking with the congressman just now," he said, "and I think I saw you give him some money. Did he ask you for any?"

"No," was the answer. "He looked poor and seedy, and I gave him enough to fix himself up. That was all. He has gone out to buy a shirt and collar and clean underclothing."

The captain had a sarcastic smile on his face. "Come with me," he said, "and see how he fixes himself up. It will interest men like you."

After paying the reckoning, we followed the captain. He escorted us around the corner. Up a narrow stairway we stumbled into a little entry on the second floor. There a bell was rung. A small panel in the center of the door was slid, and a black face appeared at the opening. The captain was recognized, and we were admitted without hesitation. The room was carpeted and furnished with an attractive sideboard. After moistening our lips we went into an adjoining apartment. It contained a faro bank. Half a dozen players sat around the table. The silence was only broken by the mellow clicking of ivory chips.

One glance was enough. The "congressman" was there, the most interested player of the lot. He was so intent upon the game that he took no heed of his surroundings. His fingers lovingly played with the chips. Every card was watched as though life or death depended upon it. Beads of sweat stood on the broad, white brow. His eyes glowed with feverish impulses. He lost the last cent of his $5 note "calling the turn." After vainly trying to beg or borrow a fresh chip he drew a long breath and arose from the table. As he saw us his face colored, and he nervously clutched his coat at the throat. "It's worse than a taste for liquor," he said, apologetically. "I couldn't help it. But I was on the verge of good luck. If you'll only loan me $5 more I'll pay you back in five minutes."

His countenance fell at the shake of the head, and he went down stairs. The secret of his downfall was out. "Night, noon and morning," observed the captain, "has he been at the faro table for ten years, and night, noon and morning will he remain there until he dies."

Ten days ago he stood before us again in the editorial rooms of a great morning newspaper. He was still beating the copses and dingles of life in his efforts to feed his passion for gambling.

AN UNQUENCHABLE APPETITE.

These efforts however, contrast unfavorably with those of a man with an unquenchable appetite for liquor. He was formerly a night editor of unsurpassed ability. One Saturday afternoon he stood on the curb a picture of sadness and distress. A brother journalist, who had just drawn a week's salary, passed him. Touched by his mournful countenance, he turned back, saying, "John, what's the matter with you? You look troubled."

The poor fellow's chest heaved, and there seemed to be a choking sensation in his throat. Finally he said: "My wife is sick, and I have been out of work some time. I haven't a cent, and I owe six weeks' rent. I expect to find the whole family out on the sidewalk when I go home to-night."

The friend gave him $10, and pressed on to report a meeting in Wall street. An hour afterward, while returning to the office, he reached the saloon. The unfortunate night editor stood at the door and took him by the lapel of the coat. "I want you to come in and take a drink with me," he said in a maudlin tone.

His friend appreciated the situation in an instant. The invitation was accepted. After the drinks had disappeared and were paid for, the friend inquired: "Why, John, where did you get your money?"

"Struck a fresh sucker an hour ago for $10," was the prompt reply.

The city is filled with men who have dropped from the ladder of fame and who draw sustenance for their passion from the industrious members of the generation who have succeeded them. You find them in restaurants, at horse races, on the streets and elsewhere, but you too often find them where they are the least welcome—at your desk.—New York Letter.

Portrait of the President's Wife.

There have already been several applications from artists who want to paint the portrait of the president's bride. It has been the custom to adorn the walls of the White House with portraits of presidents and their wives, and there are a full set of the former, but the ladies' faces are very few. Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. Madison, Mrs. Washington, Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Grant are the only ones that are represented, but Mrs. Cleveland will not leave without having her beautiful face and figure left upon the walls.—Washington Letter.

A Row Among Home Rulers.

NEW YORK, July 28.—There was a very stormy meeting of the municipal council of the Irish National Land league Tuesday night. The reception committee, after reporting how President Eagan, of the National organization, had ignored the council by appointing an independent committee to receive Michael Davitt and the Irish delegation to the national convention upon their arrival here, resigned for the sake of harmony. This provoked an exciting debate, but their resignations were accepted.

A Whole Family Struck by Lightning.

MARQUETTE, Mich., July 28.—During a heavy thunder-storm, Sunday, lightning struck a farmer's house three miles from this city, injuring the entire family of five persons, one boy being killed instantly. Medical aid was summoned from this city and the mother and two surviving children are out of danger. The father was more seriously injured, and lies in a very critical condition, but the doctors hope to save his life.

Big Sale of Northern Pacific Lands.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The sale of about 2,000,000 acres of land by the Northern Pacific railroad has been completed by the committee having the matter in charge. The lands in question are situated east of the Missouri river, and were sold at an average price of $3 per acre, to be paid for in preferred stock before next December. Further details are withheld by the company's officials.

Important Bank Suits.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 28.—Thirty-five national banks of New York city have made a motion in the United States circuit court here praying for preliminary injunctions to restrain the collection of taxes imposed upon bank shares for 1885. This action is taken pending the issue of suits for permanent injunctions. The suits involve the constitutionality of the entire system of state taxation of the shares of national banks.

Fatal Playing with Fire.

DETROIT, Mich., July 28.—Alice Flaherty, aged 4, died Monday afternoon from burns received Sunday. She was playing with her brother aged 5 and another boy of equal age, when one of them threw a lighted match at her muslin dress; it took fire and she was horribly burned.

Boycotters Secure Ben Butler for Counsel

SALEM, Mass., July 28.—Gen. B. F. Butler has been secured as counsel by William B. O'Keefe and Peter McGeogh, members of the executive board of district assembly 77, Knights of Labor, arrested on a warrant for conspiracy in boycotting the leather manufacturer, Charles Harrington.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative only fifty cents a bottle at F. Sherer & Co.

Convenient pleasant, and certain in their results, are Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. Recommended by physicians and endorsed by all who have used them. The best remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, and Constipation. Guaranteed, and sold at 25c. by Prentice & Evenson, opposite O P O

A Little Sufferer,

CLEANSED, PURIFIED AND BEAUTIFIED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES.

It affords me pleasure to give you this report of the cure of our little grandchild by your Cuticura Remedies. When six months old his left hand began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand and as his blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap Remedies, using the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap freely, and when he had taken one bottle of the Cuticura Resolvent, his head was completely cured, and he was improved in every way. We were very much encouraged and continued the use of the remedies for a year and a half. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. The scars on his hands must always remain; his hands are strong, though we once feared that he would never be able to use them. All that physicians did for him did him no good. All who saw the child before using the Cuticura Remedies and see the child now consider it a wonderful cure. If the above facts are of any use to you, you are at liberty to use them.
MRS. E. S. DRIGGS.
May 9, 1885. 612 E. Clay St. Bloomington, Ill.

The child was really in a worse condition than he appeared to his grandmother, who being with him every day, became accustomed to the disease.

Catharral Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed, to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

Sanford's Radical cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catharral Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

—The marsh fires at Palmyra were put out by rain last evening. One hundred tons of hay were destroyed and over sixty acres of land have been rendered useless for years to come.

—The Rockford Register:—The store opposite the postoffice formerly occupied by B. A. Northrup is being filled up for a shoe store. Richardson & Pulker, a Janesville firm, have a stock of goods at that place opening to-day.

—Workmen are now renewing the timbers of the old chute at the upper dam. A sort of coffer dam has been built around it and the entire structure is being torn out to give place to a more substantial one.

—The case of Squire Morse against Edward Morse has been decided by Justice Prichard in favor of the plaintiff. The parties are father and son and the amount sued for was claimed to be due on a bill for board.

—The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Perrigo, of Ruger avenue, was filled with their friends last evening, called together to witness the opening of a night-blooming cereus. The blossom was a beautiful one, larger than is commonly seen.

—The new directory contains the names of thirty-six Browns; twenty-one Connors; seventeen Jones; fourteen Johnsons; thirty Murphys; twenty Mc Gues; twenty-three Rileys and sixty-three Smiths. The Smith family has increased ten since the last directory was issued.

—The case of the state against Roy Gilman, of Evansville, is before Judge Patton this afternoon. A motion to dismiss the action upon the evidence heard is now being argued. Failure to support his wife is the charge against Gilman, and the matter is being closely contested.

—The picnic of the Olive Branch, United Workmen, at Pope Springs yesterday afternoon was a success in every sense. The Bower City band was present and rendered some very excellent music. There was an endless amount of amusement, and the afternoon was spent in the most joyous manner possible.

—The intense heat this afternoon was too much for some of the men at work on the street car extension on East Milwaukee street compelling them to suspend operations. The company are also disappointed in not receiving a supply of iron which has been on the way for a number of days. Work will probably be resumed to-morrow.

—Excepting a little town in Pennsylvania, there is probably no place in the country that has turned out more first class ball players than Janesville: Ward, Bushong, Broughton, Morrissey and a dozen others, hail from the Bower City; and even the Detroits had to come here for a man to fill out their ranks. John C. Rowe, their prize short stop did his first ball playing at this city in 1877. During the latter part of the season he played with Milwaukee. He went from there to Peoria and then to Rockford, where he was during the season of 1879. In 1880 he joined the Buffalos, playing with them until the team was bought up by Detroit.

—The new directory for Janesville Beloit and Rock county is now ready and Messrs. Charles O. Ebel, E. J. Jordan and Fred M. Elkins are in the city delivering it to the subscribers. It is much more complete than the old directory, is corrected up to a recent date and is a very excellent work. The general plan is the same as that of the edition of 1884 but there are a number of additions. After the miscellaneous directory and the one for Janesville there follows a complete directory of Beloit and of the farmers of Rock county. Names of property owners are marked with stars, the occupation is also set down in each case and under the list of villages is given the name of every person doing business outside of Janesville and Beloit.

—The Sunday school assembly at Lake Monona opens its regular programme of exercises to-day. Already a large number of campers are on the ground. The encampment as now regularly surveyed and plotted out is more delightful than ever. Quite a number of Janesville families are located on Washburn avenue not far from the lake front. Mrs. Hobart, the Littles, Cunninghams, Echlins, Draper, Glass, Ford and Rev. W. F. Brown and family are some of those now ready to receive company in the coolest manner. Mrs. Frawley furnishes such excellent board that if we can only keep a good conscience we shall surely thrive. The assembly is so popular that even the mosquitoes attend it. Already many of them have been reformed and become the only good kind. W. F. B

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 70 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with southeast wind. At one o'clock p m, the register was 102 degrees above zero. Clear with southwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 74 and 93 degrees above zero.

—"Deacon" Monroe was on the war path last night and when George Hackleman asked him to liquidate a debt of thirty-five cents he responded by striking out from the shoulder and stretching Hackleman out on the sidewalk. Still feeling a little unsatisfied William caught his opponent by the collar, lifted him partly from the ground and then struck him several heavy blows in the face. When he let go Hackleman fell to the ground utterly helpless. He was carried into Cox's saloon on Milwaukee street in front of which the assault was made and his injuries were attended to while the pugilistic "deacon" was given a ride in the patrol wagon. This afternoon he appeared before the municipal court but Hackleman being unable to appear the case was put over until August 2d.

—"I have just seen a girl with entirely fashionable feet," writes Clara Belle to the Cincinnati Enquirer, "and I may as well turn them into an exhibit. She had on pale-tan silk stockings, with slippers and gloves to match. Low walking shoes are more used than they ever have been, and are of either patent leather and black kid, or else with uppers. The stockings then chosen are either black or Suede color. Dove-grey kid sandals, in low Roman style are tipped with grey silk embroidery or cut steel beads, and worn with pearl-grey silk hose devoid of ornamentation. Immense buckles and huge rosettes are ignored in foot dressing, and instead are worn low cut French shoes, held by a small buckle of Irish diamonds. Some are wearing the green white called the Nile green as stockings, sash and watered ribbon bows with white muslin dresses. Side lines of embroidery are the ornaments preferred on the finest hosiery. There are also fine pin dots of embroidery all over the instep and ankles. Elaborate insertions of lace and large wrought flowers are seldom seen.

—A street car driver's life is not always a happy one. The small boy with a fondness for riding on the back platform, keeps him in a state of uneasiness most of the time, while horses that insist on turning around in the harness every time the car stops, to find out what the matter is, are also a fruitful source of profanity. But that isn't the worst of it. The other day a horse just brought in from the country was being broken in, and the car was only a short distance from the railroad crossing, when a switch engine came by. The horse was one of the kind that are enterprising almost to a fault. He saw that the driver was not taking any steps to get out of the smoke and cinders, so he turned the corner at Wall street and bolted, car and all, toward an adjacent coal yard where the air was likely to be purer. It rather took the young man at the helm by surprise and when he recovered the horse was trying to climb a fence, while the driver of the other car had stopped on the switch and was watching the proceedings with evident interest. It was quite a novel proceeding but will probably not be repeated.

OBITUARY.

AMELIA LOUISE MYHR.

Last evening, Mr. O. H. Myhr, of the second ward, received a dispatch from Chicago, announcing the death of his daughter, Miss Amelia Louise Myhr, of typhoid fever. Miss Myhr was taken sick six weeks ago, and was attended part of the time by her mother. Last week Monday the patient had so far recovered that Mrs. Myhr returned home, and nothing more was heard until the dispatch last evening announcing her death.

Deceased was a graduate of the Janesville high school, class of '76. For the past three years she had been employed in a dry goods house at Chicago. Miss Myhr was a member of Christ church this city, and was a lady possessing those rare traits of character which made her a great favorite among young people.

Mr. O. H. Myhr and his son, Fred H. Myhr went to Chicago on the early morning train, and will bring the remains to this city for burial. They will arrive at 8:45 this evening, and the funeral will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

MRS. EMMA DECKER.

Mrs. John R. Ryan, of the fourth ward, received a telegram from Orion Michigan, yesterday afternoon, announcing the sad intelligence of the death of her sister, Mrs. Emma Decker, wife of E. J. Decker, of that city, who passed away yesterday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock of consumption. Mrs. Decker visited Mrs. Ryan in the spring, being then in very poor health.

Personal.

—Miss Clara Hanson is in Clinton on a week's visit.

—Miss Rena Myers, of the second ward, is spending a week in Beloit.

—Mrs. A. Raymond, of Fond du Lac, is vititing her daughter, Mrs. D. Conger, of the first ward.

—Miss Sue Jones, of Oshkosh, is visiting in the city, the guest of Mrs. Lead H. Becker, of the first ward.

—The Rev. M. G. Hodge, D.D., started this morning for Kilbourn City, where he expects to remain for some time.

—Al. Neal, who was formerly in the American Express Co's office in this city, has been promoted from the Racine office to a position as messenger for the company between Eau Claire and Duluth.

—Hon Chas. G. Williams, of Watertown, Dakota, spent last night in the city. Mr. Williams is on his way home from Chicago and continued his journey to-day. He reports drouth in Dakota, though not as serious as in other sections of the country.

—Elder J. F. Browne, of Berea, Ky., is in the city calling on old friends. Mr. Browne resided in Rock county from 1865 to 1874; people in the town of Porter will remember him as the son of J. S. Brown. For a number of years Mr. Browne has been connected with the Berea college. He is at present canvassing in the interests of the Wisconsin Christian association.

WHY IT WAS DONE.

The Reasons for Locating the Pumping Station on South River Street.

Public sentiment is considerably divided regarding the location of the water works pumping station on blocks 8 and 9 in Railroad addition—South River street. This location is objected to by some, who give as their principal reasons, that the maps of the geological survey make it doubtful whether artesian water can be obtained at that point; that the park around the works can never be made an ornament to the city; that coal must be drawn a long distance, and that the water must all be forced up hill.

The commissioners who favored this location say that there was hardly any choice in the matter. In the first place a suitable piece of land could not be secured any where else in the city at so low a price. The property near the river in the third ward was just as good for the purpose as that which was chosen but the price asked for it was five thousand dollars while that of the other is only two thousand.

There are many other points to recommend it. If artesian water is secured it is desirable to have it flow to the surface and as much above as is possible. The well at the fair grounds shows that this flow cannot be secured except on low ground. In all cities where artesian wells are used the wells are sunk in the lowest ground available. Whether or not water flows directly into the pumps makes a difference in the running expenses of the works that would hardly be expected. A very fair example is furnished at Rockford and Fond du Lac, where the plants are just alike. The amount of water pumped is the same in both cities and the only difference is that in Rockford the water has to be drawn up about eight feet before it reaches the pumps, while in Fond du Lac it flows directly into the cylinders ready to be forced out through the pipes. The result is seen in the consumption of coal in the two stations, the works at Fond du Lac being done with three quarters of a ton of coal a day, while at Rockford a ton and a half is required. It is claimed that with the works on South River street they will be seen by travelers entering the city on either road, while at any other place this would not be so. They will be nearer the business part of the city than as though they were on almost any other spot; and the statement that they will be on some low flats, almost level with the water in the river is met by the fact that the land selected is at least seven feet higher than the intersection of Milwaukee and River streets.

These are the main reasons given by the commissioners for wishing to locate the plant in the fourth ward. They admit that it will not be as sightly a place as some of the others that were suggested, but claim that it will be a credit to the city nevertheless.

The action of the board would have been laid before the council for consideration on Monday night, but the engineer's specifications and diagrams were not finished, and it was thought best to wait until everything was ready.

A Tobacco Barn Burned.

This morning at 1:10 o'clock, Night Officer Ed. Smith, of the west side, discovered a bright fire in the first ward. He yelled "fire" and made haste for the west side engine house, but before he reached that place Night Officer McGinley had entered the east side engine house and struck the fire bell. The alarm was taken up at the west side engine house, and also by the whistles of a couple of locomotives at the depot. The fire department turned out and started for the first ward fire cistern. Arriving at the cistern they found the fire was some distance out on Mineral Point avenue, and they were turned about for home. The fire proved to be in a tobacco barn on the premises of George Watts. The barn was insured in the Continental, with Silas Hayner, for $300. The barn was a total loss and was worth about $400. It contained about $700 worth of tobacco, the property of S. B. Heddles, and was uninsured. The fire was caused by lightning.

—The fire department was called out this afternoon at 3:40 o'clock. The fire was the burning of grass in a pasture at the rear of the Northwestern round house, and was caused by sparks from a locomotive. Considerable fence was destroyed, and about two acres of ground burned over.

TOBACCO.

What Has Been Done Here and Elsewhere.

The Acreage in Rock County—A Considerable Decrease—In General.

JANESVILLE.

The reports of the assessors have now been completed, and the tobacco land in Rock county this year is found to be 9,863 acres. Last year it was 11,895, so the reduction is only about two thousand acres. It is believed, however, that the official figures are too high, as a considerable part of the land that was set down for tobacco will lie idle on account of the dry weather.

The markets this week have been very quiet. In the country some parts have had refreshing showers but others are still suffering from drouth.

IN GENERAL.

Reports from Connecticut indicate that this year there will be a larger proportion of seed leaf than for the last two or three years. The difference in price is so slight and the amount of seed leaf grown to the acre is so much greater, that many growers have gone back to seed, thinking it gives the best results.

Farmers who do not keep their fields well cultivated are not looked upon with much favor in the east. A short time ago an article appeared in a Wisconsin paper in which the farmers who did not keep their hoes in use were spoken to in very plain language. The United States Tobacco Journal quotes it with this comment:

"Havana, a contributor of the Edgerton Tobacco Reporter, makes some assertions in a recent issue of that paper, by which it would appear that western farmers, generally, are proverbially lazy—that is, so far as the use of that most indispensable article of husbandry, the hoe, is concerned." This condemnation is not wholly deserved. While there are farmers in Wisconsin, as in every other state, who are careless about the condition of their fields, as a rule they keep their land in very good order. This dry weather has discouraged many of them, but it will pay them to remember that hoeing is needed more when the ground is parched with drouth, than when it is moist and easily worked.

OHIO.

CONNECTICUT VALLEY.

Welcome and copious rains have fallen the past week, bringing forward the growing crop of tobacco very rapidly. Topping the plants has commenced in some localities.—American Cultivator.

PENNSYLVANIA.

So far the only serious harm to the crop has come from the hail storms that have swept over the county. On last Sunday night we were visited by another series of storms, accompanied by hail, which swept over the greater part of the county. In a number of localities much harm to the tobacco crop resulted. In Manor, Conestoga, Pequea, Salisbury and East Earl townships many fields were completely ruined—so cut to pieces that their owners at once proceeded to cut down the plants near the ground, in the hope that a new plant would spring from the roots and mature before the frosts of autumn. Still, on the whole, but a small portion of the crop has been injured, and it will have little bearing on the total amount of the county's product.—Lancaster New Era.

NEW YORK.

The growers of the weed this year certainly have nothing to complain of as far as the weather for the growth of the crop is concerned. It has been years since we have had all of the conditions so favorable for an excellent crop as this. —Bainbridgeville Gazette.

NEW YORK CITY.

Quite suddenly and unexpectedly exporters showed themselves in the market and securing about 500 cases of new Ohio at 5 to 6½ cents, reweight, left as suddenly as they came. For home trade none but old tobaccos found buyers. At the close of the previous week's market 200 cases of '81 B's and C's were sold at 12½ cents. On Monday 200 cases '84 Wisconsin were sold at 11 cents, and on Tuesday about 400 cases of partly '84 N. Y. State, partly Housatonic fine wrappery grades were sold at from 21 to 25c. The balance of the week was marked by the sales of about 1200 cases of old Pennsylvania binders and fillers at 8 to 15c, and also some '83 Connecticut wrappers at 14½.

Brokers report considerable avidity of '85 tobaccos on the part of large city cigar manufacturers, all claiming to have important orders for the same as soon as samples are ready for inspection —United States Tobacco Journal.

Digging a Ditch.

A Racine dispatch published in the Milwaukee Sentinel of this morning says: "Judge Bennett, of Janesville, was in the city to-day, and hear several motions in the circuit court. The most important one was the case of the state, exrel, T. C. Williams, relator, vs. A. B. Hayes, O. L. Crabb, et al., respondents, all supervisors of the town of Yorkville. District Attorney Williams and Mr. McKinney appeared for Williams, and Quarles, Spencer & Dyer for the town. The case has been pending for two years and over. Williams sued for an injunction restraining the defendants from digging a ditch through his property. It came to trial and was decided in favor of the town. Then the plaintiff was granted a writ of certiorari, but did not appear at that term of court, at which the writ was returnable. The defendant appeared and moved to quash the writ, which motion Judge Winslow declined to hear, because he had been counsel, and there the matter rested since, no papers ever being filed. Thereupon the defendants considered that the writ had been abandoned and proceeded to dig the ditch. The present proceeding is to punish the defendants for alleged contempt in not obeying the writ. Mr. Quarles moved that the court had no jurisdiction. Affidavits were read showing that a motion had been made to quash the writ, but never been argued. It was also affirmed that a change of venue had been granted to Waukesha county, and it was moved that the writ be quashed. Both motions will be heard at Janesville, August 3d. The case is attracting much interest throughout the county."

Brodhead.

—Brodhead was twice alarmed with fire Tuesday. At about half past five in the morning the barn in A. M. Bowens, lumber yard was discovered to be on fire. The fire company responded so quickly to the alarm that it was put out before much damage was done. The barn is unoccupied and the fire was certainly incendiary. When everything is so dry, if the fire had made much headway, a large part of the town would probably have been destroyed, and search for the offenders should be most thorough. As the afternoon freight was leaving, the engine set fire to the grass along the railroad track in the western part of the village. It was extinguished, however, before it had extended far.

—Mr. Broughton and family and Mrs. W. H. Barnes are occupying cottages at People's park this week.

—The Salvation Army still holds forth here, and now holds open air meetings in front of the saloons evenings. The Army has been well received in this place, and is much pleased with the progress made.
